Ocean Facts

You probably like going to the beach for a walk or a swim . But did you know that two thirds of the world's surface is covered by oceans and seas? The world has four oceans : The Pacific , the Atlantic , the Indian and the Arctic . The Pacific covers nearly half our planet and is the largest and deepest one. There are mountains under the oceans just like on the land . The sea level rises and falls twice a day along the world's coasts . these changes in level are called tides .The moon's gravity causes the tides to happen.
