B. Read the following text then do the tasks below:

Tokyo is one of the largest cities in the world. It is a city of great contrasts. Busy motorways and crowded underground trains carry people to and from huge office blocks and factories every day. The streets are noisy and full of people. But just around the corner, you can find peaceful squares and quiet places where life seems unhurried, and unchanged for centuries. Tokyo really is a combination of the old and the new the traditional and the modern. Harajuku, for example, is an area famous for teenage culture- the streets are full of fashion shops and fast food restaurants, and many of Tokyo's most fashionable young people come here to shop. Asakusa, on the other hand, is a district that is still traditional in many ways..
